Begin with infomercial music about to introduce a new product.

NARRATOR

Hello, I'm John LeClair, and you should listen to me because my last name is French.

Has this election cycle got you down? Is most of your time on Facebook spent pondering how you came to know so many inbred dumbasses? Is it starting to seem to you like maybe Robin Williams was onto something? Don't take the easy way out, take the easy way around.

This year, choose Election Hibernation, a new cryogenics company seeking to eliminate voter burnout.

The process is simple, we place you into a steel tube and then gradually lower your body temperature until it is as cold as a Ted Cruz kiss. Your brain activity will be reduced to that of the average Trump voter, and then you will begin an extended deep sleep, during which you will lose memory and awareness of everything around you, like a Clinton under oath.

The entire procedure is painless and enjoyable but don't take our word for it. Here is Former Republican candidate and Election Hibernation customer Ben Carson.

(speaking slow)

I tried election hibernation back in 2012. I enjoyed it so much, I chose to stay hibernating through the primaries. Even still, at this very moment, my entire body is in a suspended state and my mouth is partially paralyzed.

NARRATOR

We offer several options: skip to the conventions, go straight to voting day, or do our extended Inauguration Day hibernation where you will bypass the entire election cycle, six Benghazi hearings and two trump marriages, but still miss zero congressional votes.

We even offer a convenient Bailout option, that guarantees if Trump gets elected, we won't wake you up at all, ever.

(Quickly)Note: This option is non-negotiable for minorities.

While you're asleep, rest assured your personal information is stored safely on our in-house servers donated by the Clinton Foundation. Your belongings are locked away in our Bernie Sanders sponsored community chest, and your body will be supplied plenty of food nutrients courtesy of the residue on Chris Christie's fingers.

The results will speak for themselves. Studies show that our customers retain 85% more Facebook friends and family reunions are 50% less awkward. Stop wasting time and start skipping it. This year, travel to the future, while America is busy reliving the past, with Election Hibernation.

(quick voice)Side effects include smaller hands and possible deportation. No guarantee America makes it to the election. Offer not valid in Puerto Rico, your vote doesn't matter.
